

ANNE MITCHELL

Anne Mitchell is the Executive Director of the Canadian Institute for Environmental Law and Policy (CIELAP). Responsible for the overall management of the Institute and its programs, Ms Mitchell sees her work to relate Canadian research in environmental law and policy to issues of sustainability and social justice at the national and international levels. This builds on previous initiatives undertaken by Ms Mitchell in the areas of sustainability and social justice in Canada and Southern Africa.

Ms Mitchell has been a member of several Canadian delegations and most recently attended the World Summit on Sustainable Development, held in Johannesburg in August/September 2002. Ms Mitchell is also a member of several Advisory Committees and Board of Directors. Ms Mitchell has a Master of Arts degree from the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs, Carleton University.

Founded in 1970, CIELAP is an independent research and education organization. Its mission is to provide leadership in the research and development of environmental law and policy that promotes the public interest and sustainability.
